The Old Town

This definitely less frequently visited quarter hides many historical attractions. A sightseeing tour along the Radunia Canal shows the significance of the Teutonic Knights Order their reign in the city's history, while a visit to St Bridget's Church allows education and understanding of the very nature of the Solidarity movement. The little streets of Osiek filled with the extraordinary atmosphere lead to the Polish Post Office Defenders' Square where one of the first WW II dramas took place.

Route: Podmłyńska and Wielkie Młyny (Grand Mills) streets - St Catherine's Church - St Bridget's Church - Osiek quarter and the Polish Post Office Defenders' Square.
