Oliwa

Oliwa in the opinion of many experts in history is one of the most beautiful quarters of Gdańsk. Unusual building complexes add to the pre-war climate of the little streets and surprises the tourists with the number of the cultural and natural monuments. A visit in the Cathedral and in the vast park is an obligatory stop for every tour in Oliwa. Sacred art monuments, magnificent organ music and elaborate natural compositions will satisfy the most demanding tourists.

Route: Route: the Pest House - the Oliwa Park - The Abbots' Palace in Oliwa - the Oliwa Cathedra – Pacholek Hill and lookout tower.
